Whitewashed walls, colourful doors, purple bougainvillea bushes, cobblestone streets, blue-domed roofs, and sparkling indigo waters... What comes to mind? Correct – Greece!

Like Atlas, who carried the entire world on his shoulders, Athens carries a huge responsibility to live up to the expectations of its numerous visitors. And it does not fail. It is here that we start our trip. Athens has been the centre of Greek civilization for over 4,000 years. It is an ancient city still dominated by 5th century landmarks like the Acropolis and the Parthenon temple. It is a cosmopolitan, grungy, graceful, bustling, modern, yet ancient city. You have to visit it to understand the vibe that is so uniquely Athens and a private walking tour introduces you to this edgy capital.

High above the landscape of Meteora in Greece's central region, 60 monks and nuns live in fabled monasteries, perched on the edge of sandstone peaks. The landscape is beautiful, to say the least. Visit the stunning monasteries at Meteora, where wind-swept monoliths rise abruptly from the earth, with vertical cliffs forming a dramatic backdrop against the flat fields around them.

The next stop is Mykonos, where all the fun happens!

Well known for its minimal architecture, Mykonos is full of traditional whitewashed houses and blue-domed churches. Mykonos is one of the most famous Greek islands for its cosmopolitan atmosphere and vivid nightlife.

And any Grecian holiday is incomplete without a visit to Santorini.

Santorini, with its rugged landscape, owes allegiance to a rather violent volcanic eruption that took place many moons ago. The city evokes images of white, cubist houses clinging precariously to rugged cliffs, overlooking the bluest sparkling indigo waters of the Aegean. And the sunsets can make even the most stone-hearted emotional!

We select luxurious properties, and given how tiny European Hotel rooms can be; we select the room category with care -holidays are about pampering after all and all the more in gorgeous Greece.

Join WeGoBond as we explore the Grecian landscape this May

Day 3

Wednesday, May 21th | Athens – Half Day walking Tour and then free

Enjoy a half-day walking tour in Athens today with your guide. We start the tour at Omonia Square.

Omonia Square is lined with buildings of importance from the 19th and 20th centuries. Noisy and busy most of the times, Athinas Street is connected mainly to the food trade. You will see the neoclassical mansions of the Town Hall, the Varvakeios Municipal Market (where meat, fish, and vegetables are sold; closed on Sundays), and the spacious Kotzia Square surrounded by impressive mansion buildings housing the Cultural Center of the National Bank and the services of the National Bank of Greece.

Continue on the pedestrian zone of Aiolou Street and see two marvellous churches – Panagia Chrysospiliotissa and Agia Irini, the first Cathedral of Athens.

Walk to Monastiraki Square, the historic square that is now fully renovated with multicoloured mosaic and surrounded by sites such as Tzistarakismoque, Roman Agora, and Hadrian's Library.

Stop for lunch on the way.

Then walk up Adrianou Street, lined with many souvenir shops, till the 12th century Metropolis Athens Cathedral.

Walk through Plaka's main shopping street, view the oldest house of Athens of the Benizelos family, and the Lysicrates monument, right before reaching Dionysiou Areopagitou Street where the tour ends.

Walking tour will be about 3.5 – 4 hours and then the day is at leisure
We have no transport on this day, we will walk and use the subway between places

Breakfast

Day 4

Thursday, May 22nd | Athens – Delphi – Meteora

We will start early today. Start at 8:30 am and our first stop will be at Delphi

Step into the heart of ancient Greece at Delphi, the legendary site that once served as the oracle of Apollo and a pivotal hub of Greek culture. Nestled on the slopes of Mount Parnassus, this UNESCO World Heritage site invites you to wander through its stunning ruins, including the ancient theater, the Temple of Apollo, and the sacred site of the Pythian Games.

(We will not have time to visit Delphi museum)

Then we make our way to Meteora, where towering rock formations rise dramatically from the earth, creating one of the most breathtaking sights in Greece. Home to a breathtaking collection of medieval monasteries perched atop sheer cliffs, Meteora is a UNESCO World Heritage site that combines natural beauty with rich spiritual heritage.

Overnight at Doupiani Hotel or similar

Breakfast

6 hour
(without stops)

Day 5

Friday, May 23rd | Meteora

Today we go on a guided hiking tour of Meteora, walk through hidden trails that only locals know of.

Get transported back in time following the footsteps of the first monks who arrived here more than 15 centuries ago. The hike begins at the foothills of Doupiani rock, beneath the old ruins of Pantokrator monastery. It then crosses through the immense rock formations to reach the northern side of Meteora. Here, discover some hidden monasteries. Listen to the stories and the legends behind each place you pass along the trail.

(moderate fitness level required)

After the hike, head for lunch

Then late afternoon / evening at leisure

Important notes:

- Wear comfortable clothes and good shoes.
- The monasteries in Meteora have a strict dress code – women must wear a long skirt and a top with long sleeves.

Day 7

Sunday, May 25th | Athens – Mykonos

Catch the early morning ferry to Mykonos (exact ferry schedule to be confirmed) – but the ferries are typically around 7:00 am or so

Welcome to Mykonos; the jewel of the Cyclades, where sun kissed beaches, vibrant nightlife and the charming Cycladic architecture all come together in perfect harmony

On arrival, drop off our bags at the hotel and then go on a two hour walking tour of Mykonos; walk the labyrinthine streets, take a photo at the most “instagrammable”, church – Paraportiani, see Little Venice and find Petros the Pelican!

Evening at leisure after walking tour, for you to enjoy this lovely island at your own pace

Overnight at Porto Mykonos
or similar

Breakfast

3 hours
(Ferry Ride)

Day 8

Monday, May 26th | Mykonos – Santorini

Transfer to the port to catch your ferry to Santorini. (ferry schedule to be confirmed, ferries are usually at around 11:00 am or so)

Santorini is bursting with tourists for a reason: It is breathtaking. Renowned for its spectacular caldera views this gem of the Aegean Sea – begs for some wandering. Soaking in the gorgeous vistas and sunsets.

As the day draws to a close, we will head to the charming village of Oia and catch the sunset.

Have dinner in Oia and then head back to the hotel.
